

Holy Family Catholic School – Faculty of Humanities and the Arts

Drama

Autumn Half Term 1

Year 8

Learning Intention	Vocab	Concept	Retrieval	Success Criteria	Hinge questions	Red Zone
Lesson 1 Week 1 To understand how to create tension in a performance	Tension, World War One, Trench, Over the Top, Advance, Crescendo	Creating tension.	3 tableaux	I can... Identify the drama techniques used to create tension Describe what life was like in the trenches in WW1 Create tension in a trench/battle-field scene	How do we create tension in a scene? How does tableaux help us to create a scene?	Lo: Create tension in a trench/battle-field scene. YOU Do     -10 Minutes -Rehearsing with your group -Trench scene Tension in the Trenches Including our Monologues 1. You are with your troop in the trenches. Develop your tableau into a scene to show the activities the soldiers do on a normal day. 2. You hear/see gunfire from afar – the enemy are advancing. Develop your tableau into a scene to show you all preparing your weapons. 3. You have gone over the top. Develop your tableau into a scene to show your troop in the battle field Physical Skills to show your character G – Gestures S – Stance P – Posture E – Eye Contact E – Expressions D – Dynamics CHALLENGE: Include other Drama techniques to make your performance more dramatic. For example, physical theatre, thought-tracking, narration or voice-over.
Lesson 2 Week 2 Preparing a monologue	Devise, Scene, Perform Monologue	Add monologue into scene	DEPART	I can... Annotate my monologue with vocal techniques Rehearse my monologue using vocal techniques to communicate my character and their emotions Add my monologue to my trenches scene	How do I use vocal techniques to create tension? Can I use movement and vocality to create emotion?	Lo: Add my monologue to my trenches scene. YOU Do     -15 Minutes -Rehearsing with your group -Two sections ADDING YOUR MONOLOGUE TO YOUR TRENCHES SCENE. 1) You are in the trenches. -Put your monologues here. -These could be adapted into conversations instead. 2) You hear/see gunfire from afar – the enemy are advancing. Prepare your weapons. -Are you scared? -How could you create tension? -Do you want to go over the top? Techniques to create tension: • Pauses/silence • Music • Sound effects • Lighting • Breathing • Crescendo • Emotional vocal and physical skills CHALLENGE: Include other Drama techniques to make your performance more dramatic. For example, physical theatre, thought-tracking, narration or voice-over.

Holy Family Catholic School – Faculty of Humanities and the Arts

Drama

Autumn Half Term 1

Year 8

Learning Intention	Vocab	Concept	Retrieval	Success Criteria	Hinge questions	Red Zone
Lesson 5 Week 5 Rehearsal	Collaboration Moral compass Right Wrong	Building tension through conscience alley	MW task	I can... Create tension in a scene using a conscience alley	What is the best way to create tension? Does exploration help with tension?	LO: To be able to communicate thoughts and mood through a conscience alley. BUILD THE TENSION  Now we are going to improve our Conscience Alleys by building tension. Think about the tension techniques you have already used in your trench scene. The Conscience Alley needs to build up to a climax CHALLENGE - BE CREATIVE... Do you want to stay in two lines or could you move around? How could you use your voices effectively? Could you talk over each other at times? Techniques to create tension: • Pauses/silence • Music • Sound effects • Lighting • Breathing • Crescendo • Emotional vocal and physical skills 10 Minutes Rehearsing with group At least 3 tension techniques
Lesson 6 Week 6 Split scene	Explain Plan perform Split scene	Develop trench scene to include a split scene	Retrieval quiz	I can... Explain what split-scene is and why it is used. Plan a split-scene between a home and trench scene.	Why do we use split scene and what does it help us to do?	LO: To be able to perform a scene using Split-Scene. Rehearsal  20 Minutes With your group Both scenes • Choose two moments to stop your 'White Feather' scene and cut to a scene in the 'trenches' scene. • Think about where to place the cuts to make the performance more dramatic! CHALLENGE: Ensure your performance is well organised – the group should know exactly when to stop and start in the split-scene. Use cues to help you. PERFORMANCE SKILLS: - Gestures - Stance - Posture - Eye contact - Expression - Dynamics - Diction and projection - Emphasis - Pitch - Accent - Rhythm and tempo - Tone
Lesson 7 Week 7 Rehearse and perform	Split-scene trench conscience alley white feather gestures stance posture expression eye contact dynamics	Rehearse and perform using techniques explored	Q&A	Perform using GSPEED & DEPART	Can I bring all the techniques together into performance? Why is being a good audience member important?	LO: To be able to perform a scene using Split-Scene. Rehearsal & Performance  • Choose two moments to stop your 'conscience alley' scene and cut to a scene in the 'trenches' scene. • Think about where to place the cuts to make the performance more dramatic! CHALLENGE: Ensure your performance is well organised – the group should know exactly when to stop and start in the split-scene. Use cues to help you. PERFORMANCE SKILLS: - Gestures - Stance - Posture - Eye contact - Expression - Dynamics - Diction and projection - Emphasis - Pitch - Accent - Rhythm and tempo - Tone

Holy Family Catholic School – Faculty of Humanities and the Arts

Drama

Autumn Half Term 1

Year 8

Learning Intention	Vocab	Concept	Retrieval	Success Criteria	Hinge questions	Red Zone
	diction emphasis pitch accent rhythm tone					