

NATIONAL JUSTICE MUSEUM EDUCATION

Courtroom Workshops at Bradford Crown Court

UNIQUE.

THOUGHT-PROVOKING.

REWARDING.

Two weeks of inspirational curriculum-linked educational visits at Bradford Crown Court, helping students to gain practical experience of the law and justice system. Two-hour interactive workshops bring the law to life through hand-on, authentic and unforgettable learning experiences. Pupils will explore a contemporary or historical case in a real courtroom. They will create, prepare and present a trial, taking on all the courtroom roles, reach a verdict and debate the outcome.

Real Life CURRICULUM-
LINKED COURTROOM
LEARNING

Dates and Times of sessions	Monday 25 February – Friday 8 March 2019, weekdays Morning sessions 10am – 12pm or Afternoon sessions 12.30pm - 2.30pm
Cost	£7.50 per student. Teacher places are free .
Topics	CONTEMPORARY: Cyberbullying, Drugs, Knife Crime, Murder HISTORICAL: Suffragettes, Murder
Booking Information	Choose your preferred dates/times and topic and fill out an enquiry form. Our bookings team will get back to you. http://www.nationaljusticemuseum.org.uk/education/book-educational-visit/ Alternatively, to make a booking please call our bookings team on 01159 939811 Maximum number of pupils per session: 30