

Careers Survey - University of Oxford

The Department for Education and Bradford Council, in partnership with Trinity College, Oxford University, have commissioned an evaluation to understand the current landscape, with a focus on Careers Within School. The purpose of the evaluation is to improve understanding of the requirements from both young people and careers leaders and to identify where additional support may be required to ensure effective planning and use of resources.

Year 9 Survey

Year 11 Survey