Virtue of the Week – LOVE OF LEARNING

“The heart of the discerning acquires knowledge, for the ears of the wise seek it out.”
(Proverbs 18:15)

You might be awarded a love of learning virtue for doing things like:

- Showing effort and enthusiasm
- Producing good quality work
- Completing additional / independent work

- You have a desire for knowledge and are happy learning new things and growing in understanding.
- You are attracted by what is worth knowing and away from what is not.
- You give time to learning and you seek what is true and what is good.
- You do not give time to rumour or gossip.
- You are open minded and open to change.

The great doughnut debate!

Knowledge	Last year, a student asked me 'Why do some doughnuts have holes in but others don't?' Unfortunately I didn't have time to explore the answer there and then. So, our learning today is going to be centred around that question and hopefully learning something new. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BMgB9Jg9Z3g
Reasoning	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What are you passionate about?2. What knowledge do you have that you can share with others? – shared knowledge helps others learn.3. Is there such thing as 'bad' learning?
Practice	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Some people may have passed the question off as a silly question. But, if you are curious and passionate about a topic, don't be put off by other people; ask the 'silly' question.2. All learning is good learning.3. Find out something you've always been curious to know, if you're wondering about it, guesses are, someone else is curious to!
