What is needed to master the knowledge?

Incarnation

- Students explore the Catholic understanding of incarnation as the revelation of God in the image of humanity.
- The significance of the example and teaching of Jesus as the authoritative source for moral teaching is considered, alongside the importance of the sacramental nature of reality and expressions of beliefs about Jesus in symbol and statuary.
- This leads to an examination of different Christian views about images of Jesus.

Religion, Peace and Conflict

- Students should study Christian and non-religious beliefs such as atheism and Humanism in contemporary British society.
- They must also study Christian and philosophical and ethical arguments and their impact and influence on the modern world.
- Students will be expected to show their understanding of religion through the application of teachings from religion and beliefs.
- They will also be expected to make specific references to sources of wisdom and authority including scripture or other religious texts.
