1st February
2022

The house argues...

“Strict school uniforms should be required.”

Great arguments from both sides. AGAINST won the DEBATE-Congratulations on the use of strong persuasive techniques.

FOR:

Uniforms support inclusion.
They are cost effective.
We can say no to branding.
Focus on schoolwork.
Promotes community ethos.
Great for discipline.
Saves time in the morning.
Combats bullying.

Congratulations!

This week the Dynamic Debater Award goes to:
Hasnain Khalil-9A
Congratulations!

AGAINST: WON!

Uniforms limit individuality.
Uniforms cost way too much How can we be creative when we are put in a box from the start?
Is not a reflection of the real world.
Where is the sense in Year 12/13 not wearing uniform?
How can school staff be role models
when they do not wear uniforms?

“The problem is not wearing the uniform; it is the idea that “strict” means I am in trouble for wearing a different kind of black shoe. It is Outrageous!”

Next week’s Topic: “Social Media has benefitted the world
more than hindered it.”
