

08/02/2022

eloquent

(adjective)

A person who is eloquent is good at speaking and is able to persuade people.

Use this word correctly in your work in any subject this week for a class charts point.

Synonyms

- Persuasive
- Articulate
- Moving

Sentences containing the adjective 'eloquent'

- The best man gave such an eloquent speech that most guests were crying.
- The eloquent way in which the lady dealt with the complaint, prevented any further action.

Antonyms

- Inarticulate
- Incoherent
- Mumbling

eloquent

(adjective)

A person who is eloquent is good at speaking and is able to persuade people.

Are these examples using the word eloquent correctly? Explain why or why not.

1. If you are eloquent, people will dislike listening to you and will find you confusing.
2. He is an eloquent story teller and paints a picture with his words.
3. The student gave such an eloquent thank you speech that the teachers were extremely moved.

Which of these words has a similar meaning to eloquent?

- Articulate
- Unclear
- Tongue-tied
- Incoherent
- Well spoken
- Expressive

Aspire!

Think deeper – who is someone that you would describe as eloquent? What makes them eloquent?

