word of the week

coherent

(adjective)
To make sense logically, to flow clearly, and be understandable.

Synonyms
- Clear
- Logical
- Articulate

Antonyms
- Jumbled
- Confused
- Unintelligible

Sentences containing the adjective 'coherent'
- Harold was too distraught to deliver a coherent statement.
- People voted for the politician who gave a coherent speech about the budget.

word of the week

coherent
(adjective)
To make sense logically, to flow clearly, and be understandable.

Which picture best represents the word coherent? Explain your answer. 👍

🔥 Which of these words has a similar meaning to coherent?
- Reasoned
- Unclear
- Incoherent
- Muddled
- Well organised
- Systematic

Aspire! Which subjects at school might use the word coherent?