The Holy Family

Catholic School

At The Holy Family Catholic School, our policies and the actions arising from them are always founded in spirit and in letter in our Catholic faith, especially our mission statement and nine core virtues:

Awakening Minds

Our faith, the teachings of Christ, is at our heart. We devote ourselves fully to our spiritual growth, striving for excellence in all that we do each day.

Achieving Dreams

Our work blends inspirational teaching and confident study in a stimulating environment. We learn wholeheartedly, turning our ambitions into reality with every opportunity.

Serving Others

Our spirit leads us to take a positive role in our community. We show love, care and respect for one another and for everyone in our world today.

Privacy Notice for The Holy Family Catholic School Students

We collect and use personal data relating to students and their families under the principles of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR).

The Holy Family Catholic School is the Data Controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means the school determines the purposes for which, and the manner in which, any personal data is to be processed. The school has a GDPR lead who acts as a representative for the school with regard to its data controller responsibilities.

In some cases, your data will be outsourced to a third-party processor; however, this will only be done with your consent, unless the law or our policies requires the school to share your data. Where the school outsources data to a third-party processor, The Holy Family Catholic School has sought assurances from the processor to ensure they process data in line with the GDPR and the privacy rights of individuals.

DPO Centre is the Data Protection Officer. The data protection officer can be contacted on dpo@holyfamilyschool.uk or via mail at DPO The Holy Family Catholic School, Spring Gardens Lane, Keighley, BD20 6LH

The categories of student information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Contact details, contact preferences, date of birth, identification documents
- Results of internal assessments and externally set tests
- Student and curricular records
- Characteristics, such as ethnic background, eligibility for free school meals, or special educational needs
- Exclusion information
- Behaviour Information
- Details of any medical conditions, including physical and mental health and accident information
- Attendance information
- Safeguarding information
- Details of any support received, including care packages, plans and support providers
- Use of internet and ICT resources in school
- Photographs
- CCTV images captured in school

We may also hold data about students that we have received from other organisations, including other schools, local authorities and the Department for Education.

Collecting Student information

Whilst the majority of student information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the GDPR, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain student information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Why we collect and use this information

We collect and use personal data as set out under the GDPR and UK law. We use this data

- to support student learning
- to monitor and report on student progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to protect student welfare
- to safeguard students

- to enable students to take part in national or other assessments and to publish the results of public examinations or other achievements of students
- to assess the quality of our services
- to share news about our work and promote our services
- enable us to carry out specific functions for which we are responsible
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use student information as set out in the Education Act 1996 and Regulation 5 of the Education Regulations 2013. To conform with GDPR, any information the school processes fulfils one of the following requirements from Article 6 of the GDPR:

- Legal Obligation
- Public Interest
- Vital interest of the data subject, or another person
- Contractual Obligation

Where we process special categories of personal data we do so under obligations covered in Article 9 of GDPR:

- A substantial public interest

Where the above do not apply, the school will seek consent for specific purposes in line with Article 6.1.a of the GDPR. This will be done in writing and will clearly define the uses of personal information and ask for consent.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

Storing student data

Where information forms part of a student's statutory education record, The Education Regulations 2005 SI 2005 No. 1437, the school will retain the information for 25 years from the child's date of birth. In accordance with the GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely; data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected.

Why we share student information

We do not share information about our students with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share students' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our students with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Students) (England) Regulations 2013.

We are required to pass information about our students to the Department for Education (DfE) under regulation 4 of The Education (Information About Individual Students) (England) Regulations 2013.

Who we share student information with

We routinely share student information with:

- Schools that the student's attend after leaving us
- The Diocese of Leeds
- Our local authority
- The Department for Education (DfE)
- Staff
- The student's family and representatives
- Parents or carers of school students
- Educators and examining bodies
- Ofsted

- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
- Financial organisations
- Central and local government
- Our auditors
- Survey and research organisations
- Health authorities
- Health and social welfare organisations
- Professional advisers and consultants
- Charities and voluntary organisations
- Media publications
- Police forces, courts, tribunals

Data collection requirements:

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools> .

Youth Support Services

Students aged 13+

Once our students reach the age of 13, we also pass student information to our local authority and/or provider of Youth Support Services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services through Youth Support Services and careers advisers.

A parent or guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of Youth Support Services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / student once he/she reaches the age 16.

Students aged 16+

We will also share certain information about students aged 16+ with our local authority and/or provider of Youth Support Services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services via post-16 education and training providers, Youth Support Services and careers advisers.

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about students in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

We are required by law, to provide information about our students to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Students) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-student-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our students from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics

- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to student information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.

For more information about the department's data sharing process, please visit:
