

The Holy Family Catholic School

How do psychologists help catch criminals?

Sixth Form, College or Apprenticeship

GCSE Exams

How do you manage violent criminals?

Managing offenders behaviour.

Is crime influenced by genetics?

Explaining criminal behaviour through environmental factors. .

The purpose of punishment.

Is there an alternative to prisons?

How might our biology make us criminals?

Does the media influence crime?

Does free-will exist and is it beneficial for human psychology?

What are the strengths and limitations of using non-experimental methods in research?

Can looking after animals improve your mental health?

How are participants collected?

Year 11 Mock Exams

How do you measure personality?

Reductionism and holism in psychology

The nature / nurture debate in psychology.

Is psychology a science?

What is the difference between personality and temperament?

Why is culture so important in research?

How is data displayed?

Year 11

How are we affected by a majority?

What are the ethical guidelines in research?

How can social influence result in harmful behaviours?

The use of non-experimental methods in psychology: interviews

What is social influence?

What is personality and how does it affect our behaviour?

Eye-witness Testimonies and the police

Using case studies in research.

What are the treatments for mental illness?

What is depression and addiction?

How are mental health problems diagnosed?

What causes amnesia and forgetting?

How do we create new memories?

What is synaptic transmission?

The use of non-experimental methods in psychology: observations

What are the sampling methods used to collect participants?

What are the key features of science?

How does a psychologist conduct an experiment?

How can our 'mindset' change our behaviour?

What is morality?

Start

Year 10

How the brain develops and the structure of the brain.

How the nervous system works, including a neural firing.

The symptoms of brain damage.

How do we learn and developed cognitive functioning?