Virtue of the Week – LOVE OF LEARNING

“80% of success is showing up.” (Woody Allen)

“Any success I have had began by my showing up on time.” (William Shatner)

You might be awarded a love of learning virtue for doing things like:

- Showing effort and enthusiasm
- Producing good quality work
- Completing additional / independent work

- You have a desire for knowledge and are happy learning new things and growing in understanding.
- You are attracted by what is worth knowing and away from what is not.
- You give time to learning and you seek what is true and what is good.
- You do not give time to rumour or gossip.
- You are open minded and open to change.

Attend today and achieve tomorrow

Knowledge

- It's a fact: unless you are in school – you won't learn, and unless you are learning – you won't thrive!
- The following VIDEO will help you to think about the reasons you may not be attending school as regularly as you should be.

Reasoning

1. How will your adult life look for you? What are your dreams and aspirations?
2. Do you know what the school target is for attendance and why we have a target?
3. Do you know what your attendance is so far and are you on track to support your future, if not what's your plan?

Practice

1. Prepare yourself for your school day, pack your bag the night before, sleep well, have breakfast. Remember you can get a free breakfast here in school if you prefer.
2. Think about the reasons which may prevent you from attending school regularly. Remember that there are many people who can help you with your plan to improve.
